1. BIOGRAPHY

Daniel Bueche is a highly skilled accident reconstructionist who has investigated over 600 traffic crashes as a primary investigating officer, including property damage accidents. With his extensive experience and specialized training in various subjects, he has become an expert in the field and has qualified to testify as an expert witness.

Daniel's passion for criminal justice began during his early years, and he pursued an associate degree in applied science in Criminal Justice from Mott Community College. After completing his degree, he began his career in law enforcement and worked as a police officer at the City of Flushing Police Department and Mundy Township Police Department before joining the St. Clair County Sheriff's Office.

Throughout his career, Daniel has continuously sought to enhance his knowledge and expertise in accident reconstruction. He has received specialized training in various subjects, including advanced analysis of driver's responses, advanced collision reconstruction with CDR applications, pedestrian collision investigation, motorcycle crash investigation, and occupant kinematics, among others. He is an accredited traffic accident reconstructionist and a member of several professional organizations, including the National Association of Professional Accident Reconstruction Specialists, the Police Officers Association of Michigan, and the Michigan Association of Traffic Accident Investigators, where he currently holds the position of Secretary/Treasurer.

As a sergeant in charge of Traffic Services, Daniel oversees the St. Clair County Crash Investigation Team. He is responsible for reviewing all written reports related to investigations involving serious injury or fatalities by members of the Crash Investigation Team. His attention to detail and expertise in accident reconstruction has been instrumental in helping the team solve complex cases.

Daniel's contributions to the field of accident reconstruction have earned him recognition from his colleagues and the community. He is a respected professional who is known for his dedication and commitment to his work.
